

WASHINGTON SEES WEDDING OF THE SEASON

All Washington turns out to see the King's second cousin - David Michael Mountbatten, Marquis of Milford Haven - wed (at the Presbyterian Church) Mrs. Romaine Simpson, 26-year-old American socialite. Despite pleas by the photographers, the couple refuse to pose for the customary 'after-it's-all-over' kiss. American gossip writers had linked the handsome, 30-year-old member of the Mountbatten family with almost every eligible girl in the world, bar the one he married. Best man to Prince Philip at his wedding, the Marquis was (up till recently) a lieutenant in the Royal Navy and won a D.S.C. during the war. After a European honeymoon, the couple will return to live in America.
