SKATERS KEEP 'EM ROLLING

To Paris comes the latest expert from America - the Skating Vanities. First, they perform without the skates - their dainty feet guaranteed never to touch the floor.

Stan Laurel, newly-arrived from Hollywood, looks on, as America's lovelies astound the city with a new technique in show business. "Keep 'em rolling" is the password of the show - and the vanities - now complete with roller skates - never forget it.

Acclaimed as the hit of the Paris season, the Vanities now plan a world tour.
