PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Coniston

To Donald Campbell, nearly ready to attack his father's world record, comes so-far-unconfirmed news that a new record has been set at a speed which would practically make Bluebird airborne! He's out to beat 142-m.p.h. But if the new claim of 160-m.p.h. is upheld, the target becomes too high for Bluebird, whose record has stood for 11 years.

Paderborn

Private Linsell of the Black Watch, walks out a free man after being under sentence of death for shooting a German policeman. Public opinion was roused by the sentence. General Keightley's refusal to confirm the conviction settles the matter for Private Linsell.
