

RADIO STARS PICK WINNER

Finalists in the National Bathing Beauty Contest at Morecombe present a row of figures to puzzle even the calculating eye of Professor Jimmy Edwards. With Joy Nichols - he's one of the judges - Dick is indisposed. Sylvia Wren comes from Dagenham. For further details consult the local papers.

Dorothy Birrell of Glasgow gives the judges a twirl to help them make up their minds and Professor Edwards twirls in reply. It'll be "local girl makes good" if Margaret Baynes is picked; and a triumph for London if Jenny Howard wins. Public voting was the basis of the contest, but now somebody's got to stick his chin out. There's £1,000 for the winner. Make your choice as Joy and Jimmy "Take It From Here."

Here's their answer as Joy presents Violet Pretty of Birmingham.

And here, with the "Sunday Dispatch" Rose Bowl, is Violet, very definitely sitting pretty!
