

50/74

TO NEPTUNE - A DAUGHTER

The Neptune's Daughter contest comes to a climax as the finalists show good reasons for their choice, and even the Sea King couldn't say their reasons have no basis. They're the pick of 7,000 entries and Neptune himself comes to see which one David Niven will pick for him.

There's a luxury air-trip to Hollywood and a heap of other prizes for the lucky girl but only a headache for the judges.

Nineteen to choose from! Each guaranteed to make old Neptune go all fatherly - or even a step farther. And the judges pick 19-year-old Sylvia Wren, No. 19.

Now Dagenham's really got something to pipe about.