QUEEN JULIANA OPENS PARLIAMENT

With Prince Bernhard, Queen Juliana drives to the State Opening of Parliament in the gold state coach presented by the city of Amsterdam to her mother 52 years ago.

In the Hall of the Knights, the Queen, who ascended the throne just two years ago when her mother, Queen Wilhelmina abdicated, finds the diplomatic Corps and other distinguished guests waiting, to hear her review of the five years since Holland's liberation. Concluding, the Queen declares Parliament open.
