Three shot of Attlee addressing Party
Attlee refers to the satisfactory effects of devaluation + regrets the amount of our resources we have to devote to defence & says Labour Movement is out to destroy seeds in which war grows + adds that capitalism has lost faith in itself
Attlee ✓

- 1. S.C.U. Mr. Attlee on platform speaking: '.... so devalue the pound. Well as usual that was roundly condemned by the Opposition. But it has proved to be wise and successful, because in the course of this period, it has, in effect, pretty well balanced our foreign payments.'
- 2. S.C.U. 'It's unpleasant to all of us to have to devote so much of our resources to defence, but we have a clear responsibility to this people and to the world to see that freedom shall not go down for lack of defence (applause) and the Government is not afraid of taking unpopular steps where those steps are right and we know we have the support of the great mass of our Party'.
- 3. S.V. 'Our movement is out to deal with the causes of war and this Party and this Government has always based itself to the task of seeking to raise the standard of life of the peoples all the world over so as to try and destroy the soil in which the seeds of war grow. There was no other alternative. Capitalism, you know, has lost faith in itself.'
