

HEREFORDANIMAL SUNDAY

In memory of St. Francis of Assisi, the friend of all animals, pets of all kinds are taken to a meadow behind Holy Trinity Church, Hereford, for the annual blessing.

When the Service was held in the Church last year, many of the pets were trampled on, so this year the Reverend Snell plays safe with his very mixed congregation.

Pets are friends especially to the halt and the maimed.

Many of the pets were first found injured and taken to the vicarage to be healed. In teaching children to be thoughtful for those who cannot help themselves Animal Sunday is a beacon in these days when cruelty is so rife.
