U.S. BEAT R.A.F. IN "BRITANNIA"

The Britannia Shield inter-allied services tournament boils down to the R.A.F. versus America. Sgt. Henderson of the R.A.F. finds Cpl. Pratt very awkward.

It's like fighting an octopus with all arms working - and Henderson's down!

We pick this fight as it's the most spectacular, but the match is very close with victory almost within reach of the R.A.F.

Henderson's taken more than enough and the ref. stops the fight. By 28 points to 25 victory goes to America and the Air Minister hands the Britannia shield to the victors.
