LONDON

19-year-old Jeanette Altwegg of Liverpool wins the British figure skating championship for the 4th successive year, with a superb display which makes her chance in the European and world events look rosy. Skating is one of the hardest lines to shine in; you have to start almost as soon as you can walk.

Mrs. Attlee presents the Martineau Challenge Cup to Jeanette to hold for another year. Second and third are Miss Wyatt and Miss Bailey.

The Queen and Princess Margaret arrive at the New Theatre to see a vista of Fashion through 200 years. But these knocked grandpa for a loop only 40 years ago. How did they manage in the back seat of a chara?

Getting the nanny's goat? - or do we see a little gleam in her eyes?

Here's Frances Day with an old-fashioned look that's rather nice. Joy Nicholls' 1902 bathing costume excites Dick and Jimmy who try to Take it from Here!
