23. C.U. ,Ration on tray in window. 6
24. C.U. Woman wearing head scarf. 3
25. S.V. Butcher placing ration on block in front of woman.
 Butcher: 'That's your ration for the week'.
 Woman: 'Is this all? What am I supposed to do with that?'
 Butcher: 'What you like. That's your lot'. I4
26. C.U. Mr. Warner, another butcher. J.P. asks:
 'What do you think of this new meat ration?'
 'Oh, I think it's terrible. It's a terrible problem for us butchers and an even worse problem form the housewife. I really pity her. Pity us too.'. 20
27. C.U. Mr. Barnes, another butcher. J.P. asks:
 'What is your message to the people of this country?'
 'I think the people of Islington are getting a very bad deal, on the quality of meat and the quantity and it should never be. Thankyou.' 20
28. S.V. Top view housewives showing Parsons their rations pan to women holding up rshers of bacon. 9
29. C.U. Woman holding small girl. She says:
 'On two ration books I can just have a piece of steak or chops. This week I've got steak. Next week I'll have chops. One week a meat pie. Next week chops. That's how we'll have to go on.' I3
30. C.U. Woman wearing spectacles saying:
 'One little bit of steak on Friday and blimey we've 'ad it for the rest of the week then'. 9
31. C.U. Woman wearing beret saying:
 'We'd like to know what happens to all the offal. Haven't pigs got any innards and besides I think if they were to close a few restaurants and cafes for a little while and give it to the housewives then we could feed our husbands in the proper way.' I8
32. C.U. Woman in big hat saying:
 'I think it's simply disgusting. Give us some faggots and peas pudding like they did in the olden days, then we've got something to say, and a nice meat pudding. Good gawd, what does a man live pn? IOd worth of meat. Disgusting.' 20
