

103032-0
103032-0
103032-0

51/11

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

TOKYO

A two-hundred-man Guard of Honour comes to attention in salute to General MacArthur. It's his 71st birthday and Mrs. MacArthur looks on proudly as the United Nations Commander-in-Chief in Korea inspects his crack guardsmen. Almost legendary hero, MacArthur will provide a lot for history to argue about.

WEST POINT

Home from a whirlwind three-week flying tour of eleven Atlantic Pact Nations, General Eisenhower is greeted by his wife and grand-children. The Eisenhowers were comfortably settled to an academic life when the Atlantic Pact Nations called him to be their defence chief.

WASHINGTON

Accompanied by the French Ambassador, the French Premier Rene Pleven arrives for vital talks with President Truman. Complete accord is already reported. Despite a war on her hands in Indo-China - for which America has given her plans - France will play her part for peace in the West.