

SYDNEY

AUSTRALIAN JUBILEE

1951 is Jubilee Year in Australia and (as here in Sydney) all Australia is celebrating. Fifty years ago the six independent States united to form the Commonwealth of Australia, and became an equal partner in the British Commonwealth of Nations.

Among the many floats, Sydney remembers the many thousands who suffered in both World wars. Australia's great prosperity sprang from her sheep. And the old stand-by is doing better than ever today. Sydney's famous harbour joins in with the blast of rockets.

Sydney did herself proud in the Australian Day festivities which launched her Jubilee Year.
