

FOUR MEN OF GOD

To the Chapel of the Four Chaplains comes the President to honour four heroic men of God. Eight years ago, when a troopship was torpedoed in the Atlantic the four chaplains - two Protestants, a Catholic and a Jewish Rabbi, after having given their lifebelts so that others might live, went down with the ship. Built and furnished by gifts from over ten thousand Americans, the Chapel has three altars mounted on a turntable for Protestant, Catholic and Jewish services.
