QUADS IN A QUANDARY

Edward Pappas becomes a papa - and how! They were expecting twins - but his wife Harriet tells him the stork called four times. The Pathe News cameraman dons hospital garb to take their pictures as daughters Judy and Pat and sons Richard and Edward Pappas, meet their parents for the very first time. The quads are their first children. And like all papas, Papa Pappas is overwhelmed. But if he's confused, imagine the children's problem. Why, their mama's a pappas, too!
