F.A. CUP SEMI-FINALS REPLAY

HUDDERSFIELD

At Leeds Road, Wolves take the field before a 47,000 crowd for their replay against Newcastle and it's the Wolves to kick-off. Newcastle as usual play in stripes. Their sparkling goal-less draw promises a needle replay. Here's Swinburns trying to get through. There's a tussle; they're both down and it's a free kick to the Wolves.

Hancocks takes the kick. The ball's headed out to Crewe (it's behind you, mister). But Hancocks rushes in and bangs it into the goal-mouth. There's a terrific scramble in the Newcastle goal area. Everybody's having a go, but the ball is finally cleared and a Newcastle move begins. But Pritchard intercepts and bangs it back again, and the Wolves are on the attack. The ball goes out to the wing, where Walker beats his man, runs on and shoots .... and it's a goal.

Wolves one, Newcastle nil. Then from a throw-in the ball goes to Robledo. He passes to Taylor. Taylor runs on and passes to Milburn. Wolves appeal for offside but Milburn shoots and it's all square! Now for the winner.

A minute later a crossfield pass to Mitchell, a first-timer and it's in! It all happened in the first half and for the eighth time Newcastle are in the final.

EVERTON

Meanwhile over to Goodison Park, where Everton and a sell-out crowd of 65,000 welcome Blackpool and Birmingham for their replay. It looks as though we have competition. It's just cup fever. It'll be Duck Soup if neighbouring Blackpool get knocked out by giant-killing Birmingham, but as play starts it's slippery underfoot and anything can happen in this Death or Wembley tussle.

And here's a Blackpool attack developing. The ball comes to Brown and Johnston. Birmingham clear, but back comes a shot that tests Merrick, but he saves and clears. The ball goes back to midfield. Matthews gets it; runs up and centres to Mortensen. Badham tries to intercept but Mortensen shoots. And it's in, as Merrick dives to save; but Perry makes sure.

It's a goal all right, but the ref. consults with the linesmen before crediting Mortensen ... Blackpool one, Birmingham nil.

Now here's Boyd and Johnston, Blackpool's captain, racing for the ball; Boyd wins and Birmingham are on the attack. They're up round Blackpool's goal. Over comes the ball and Atkins heads ... but Farn saves and clears.
