

PRINCESS ELIZABETH IN ROME

At Ciampino Airport, Rome, the British and Commonwealth Ambassadors and Ministers meet the Viking plane which brings Princess Elizabeth from Malta for a fortnight in Italy. Accompanied by the Duke of Edinburgh, Princess Elizabeth is welcomed by the British Ambassador and Lady Mallet who will be their hosts in Rome.

At the Quirinal Palace the Ambassador attends a lunch given by the President of Italy in honour of the distinguished visitors. It's the only official function of the visit. The Princess and Prince Philip are strictly on holiday.
