

TAKING HOME THE CUP

It's a civic welcome for Skipper Joe Harvey and the Newcastle United team as they come home from their brilliant triumph over Blackpool at Wembley. All Tyneside seems to be there as Joe proudly shows the Cup.

Funny how these Yankee ideas catch on. On any other day than this the salvage people might feel upset. But when the Magpies win the Cup, even Bladen races would take second place.

And so to their football home - St. James' Park - scene of the most dramatic match on their way to Wembley, when Bristol Rovers held them to a draw. And here, with the Deputy Mayor and Directors with them, the Magpies meet their supporters.

Jackie Milburn, the match-winner, joins his skipper as Joe Harvey thinks up something to say.

A grand team won the Cup - Newcastle's third triumph at Wembley. Well done, the Magpies!
