

51/50CHURCHILL AT BIGGIN HILL

The Honorary Air Commodore calls, and No. 615 (County of Surrey) Royal Auxiliary Air Force Squadron lines up proudly where it stood ready when war broke out. 615 played its part in the Battle of Britain; now their motors wheel out to fly past their honorary Air Commodore.

With Mr. Churchill is Fighter Command Chief Sir Basil Embry and Neville Duke former Squadron C.O. who has now taken over Wimpey Wade's job as test pilot.
