

INTERNATIONAL MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Llangollen welcomes competitors from all over the world to its International Eisteddfod, for a feast of music.

It's the fifth International Music Festival and teams from a dozen countries take part. Folk-dancing in national costumes is the highlight this year. Liverpool demonstrates an ancient dance which looks a bit dangerous for the knuckles.

From Liverpool over the Alps to the high mountain valleys of Switzerland.

From West to East. Here is a graceful Indian dancer who uses her hands more than her feet.

These Indonesians have come from Holland where they are studying.
