

SPORTS REPORT

With the highest honour of the tennis world at stake, Ken Macgregor (left) of Australia meets Dick Savitt of America, who beat him in the Australian championships final.

Savitt is on top here, tee. Wimbledon is still hoping for a British victory ... although the first two sets have gone to Savitt.

This is match point.

With Savitt's victory shout ringing in his ears Macgregor rises to congratulate the new champion.

The Duchess of Kent presents the Cup and the press of the world hails a new king of tennis, 24-year-old Dick Savitt of America.