

STEWARDS' CUP

It's Stewards' Cup Day and Goodwood's 150th anniversary. It used to be like Ascot, but Edward VII changed that to make it the ideal holiday meeting. In the big race twenty-one crack sprinters will face the tapes. Favourite is Wokingham winner, DONORE. BALBUZARD is the mount of Manny Mercer. Now it's time for the jockeys to mount and punters to make up their minds: it won't be long now. Up goes the last jockey and they're on their way to the post ... They're all lovely prices. Come on! Have a stab, madam, or you'll be too late.

They're under starter's orders, with favourite DONORE on the extreme right ... And they're off! Piggott on SILVER PENNY's out of the gate like a flash and the favourite's well away, too. Six furlongs to go and it's all out all the way.

SILVER PENNY still leads, but now DENIKIN, BALBUZARD, SPARTAN SACRIFICE and SUGAR BOWL are moving up.

Now SUGAR BOWL and SPARTAN SACRIFICE are fighting out the lead. It's a terrific finish and only the camera can sort them out as they flash past the post ... And for the second time SPARTAN SACRIFICE loses the Cup in a camera finish as SUGAR BOWL gets the verdict.
