

AQUATIC NEWS

Cameraman Rudkin

- 1. S.V. Hassan (Egypt) and Eileen Fenton 4
- 2. S.C.U. Fenton and Hassan 8
- 3. L.V. Contestants parading around Folkston pool 5
- 4. S.V. ditto 4
- 5. S.V. Crowd applauding 2
- 6. S.V. Pan contestants 3
- 7. S.V. Eileen Fenton drawing for pilot 4
- 8. S.C.U. Back view to side view Ned Barry<sup>nie</sup> Scotland who has already swum channel from England to France 9
- 9. S.V. Phillip Rising of Rotherham with official observer of the A.S.A. Mr. Gwynn 6
- 10. C.U. Phillip Rising 3
- 11. S.C.U. Map of course accross channel 4
- 12. S.C.U. Rising saying "Well, I felt quite comfortable. I swum within my strength for most of the way, but, of course, it's obvious that a swim like this is a team event and no-one can get across unless they have a first class pilot. I was very fortunate in having Mr. Harry Sharp of Folkstone and he did a grand job." 32
- 13. M.V. Abou Heif (Egypt) being congratulated by his countrymen 6
- 14. S.C.U. Egyptian asks Heif "What's your feeling after your successful swim." Heif answers: "I feel very happy. I did something for my king, my country and for myself. (17) 21

competitors for Daily Mail cross channel race

*Folkstone ✓
Races - Swimming
1-14 ✓
Spots - swimming
Note ✓ Researcher*

*Hassan ✓
Fenton Eileen ✓
Barry ✓
Phillip Rising Phillip ✓
Gwynn ✓
Heif Abou ✓*

(Orig Neg)

TITLE SCENE M
"AQUATIC NEWS"

---

TITLE SCENE M
"TOFF SWIM"