

in front of parliament, breaks into open rioting. Police move

10-25401

in and a pitched battle follows.

X Several are killed, hundreds hurt and martial law is proclaimed by Premier Mossadeq, with whom Harriman confers. A week later the Anglo-Iranian talks are reopened -- the first ray of light in the black crisis-picture in Iran.