TURPIN OFF TO AMERICA.

With brothers Dick and Jack, Randolph Turpin is guest at a farewell luncheon on his departure for his return bout with Sugar Ray Robinson; and Frank Gentle expresses the sentiments of us all:-

And now Jack Solomons, part promoter of the New York fight, and complete with cigar, adds his tribute:-

There's never been a skyer champ than Randy; he'd rather fight Robinson blindfold than do this:-

And so to Waterloo en route for the Queen Mary. Randy's sensational win over Sugar Ray put him on top of the world. He knows this time it will probably be tougher but he also knows that all Britain is saying "Good luck, Randy!"
