GRAND PRIX AT AACHEN

It's the Tournament of the Elite at Aachen or Aix-la-Chapelle we don't know very much about who did what, but for beauty in action, these pictures of crack horses and riders take a lot of beating. This we do know is Maria Gunther on Tosca. It's an international meet with British riders taking part amongst others.

Slow motion reveals all the beauty of the horse's grace as he clears this triple bar.

A horse's success depends largely on his rider. If the man on top misjudges, funny things can happen.
