

10435401
104355401
104353401
51/71
10435401

NEWS IN FLASHES

In New York Randolph Turpin and Sugar Ray Robinson meet for the first time since Randolph took the world middleweight title from Sugar Ray. As Turpin signs for the return match, betting favours Robinson whose partisans claim he had an off night when Turpin beat him. But here's hoping Randolph will do it again.

Los Angeles

At the annual Sheriff's Rodeo, Randolph Scott is Grand Marshal and Lucille Norman Rodeo Queen as a hundred-thousand crowd watches as the range life gets busy telling the hired hands where they get off.

Some of them come unstuck at the front door and find No Welcome on the mat.

When the horses take over, things really become difficult.

If horses could talk, this one would surely say, This is where I came in!

Milan

World champion Reg Harris meets Bellenger of France and Patterson of Australia and there they go in the final of the world professional sprint championship. The light's bad but here's Harris (in white) beginning his sprint in the second lap. Bellenger fights hard but it's Harris first across the line to win the world champion's jersey for the third successive year. Now he's going to see what he can do with cars!

New York

Visiting New York for the first time is 25-year-old Muriel Rich, who some day may be 26! She's dramatizing an appeal for clothes for Koreans. What some people won't do to get clothes!

Dangerous as it may be to take liberties over the status thereof a closer look shows Muriel isn't afraid of catching cold.

Any time you want to hang from a helicopter with Muriel, you're welcome, but bring your own tight!