

51/79

BACK HERE FROM OVER THERE

The "Queen Mary" always has a lot of interesting people onboard when she docks at Southampton. Here's Lord Jewitt, back from Australia. From Ottawa comes Mr. Shinwell after a N.A.T.O. conference. Glad to be back in England, too, is Mr. Gifford, the American Ambassador. And here's Randolph Turpin looking so cheerful you'd never think he'd just lost a world title. "Randy" how about that 10th round decision. Could you have gone on?

SOUND

Mr. Morrison's been busy with the Jap Peace Treaty and Defence talks. To the question "Shall we resort to force in Persia?" Mr. Morrison replies.....

SOUND

Our interviewer then asked is there any reason why Russia should be suspicious about British policy?

SOUND