PLAYING FIELD FOR BERMONDSEY

The Mayor, Councillor Kemp, opens the gates and a brand-new fully-equipped playground becomes the property of the children of Bermondsey. This boon to mothers and children alike is the gift of the Variety Club of Great Britain, whose Chief Barker, Mr. G. J. Latta, makes the presentation. With the formal part over, the kiddies take charge.

Diane Hart, Simone Silva and Sandra Dorne add glamour to the occasion and the party goes with a better "swing" than Ronald Shiner expected!

Some young men don't appreciate their good luck, do they, Diane?
