WESTON WIN DANCE TITLE

It's the Ballroom Formation Dancing Contest at the Floral Hall, Herecombe, with ten teams competing for a challenge trophy presented by the corporation.

Now comes the Weston-super-Mare team to dance a Viennese Waltz. Formation dancing is a posh form of the old time square dance - the chief different being that the teams don't need a caller to guide their steps. As an interesting and beautiful spectacle, formation dancing grows daily more popular.

As Weston end their dance, the verdict of the judges gives them the coveted 'first.'
