

BRITISH MOVIE TONE NEWS.

OCTOBER 1951.

MANOEUVRES ON MEDITERRANEAN SEA.

United States Naval Forces Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean Sixth Fleet.

CAMERAMAN: S.H.A.P.E.

Admiral Gardner, Gen. Eisenhower on the Flag Bridge of the USS des Moines.
(Cal34)/

Eisenhower and Admiral Carney on the Flag Bridge.

Eisenhower, Adm Carney and CDR Hudgins.

Eisenhower and Adm. Carney .. C.U.

Eisenhower, Adm. Carney and Adm. Gardner.

Signal man sending message to the USS Leyte (CV 32) R.J. Williams QM2 of Orlando Florida.

USS Leyte receiving message.

Side view of above the signalman.

Looking forward the bow of the ship while rolling.

Side view of the ship cutting through the water.

C.U. of the ship cutting through the water.

Eisenhower and Admiral Carney talking on deck.

Eisenhower, Carney and Adm. Gardner talking on deck before transfer to the USS Roosevelt (CVB.42)

Ike, Carney and Gardner on the fantail talking and later starting to walk General getting into a life jacket before entering the helicopter for transfer.

General Pearson, Captain Anderson (both of SHAPE) and Adm. Gardner talking

General Ike's flag flying from mainmast also showing the American Flag Helicopter taking off and going airborne.

USS Roosevelt CVB 42 being fueled by USS Alagash (AO-97).

Aircraft coming in on bombing, Strafing and rocket runs at a flare target in the water.

Aircraft were carrier borne.

Air craft flying in formation - being recovered by the USS Roosevelt CVB42

Destroyers pounding their way through heavy seas.

Eisenhower and Adm. Carney returning from the USS Roosevelt by helicopter, landing on ship, Eisenhower jumping out and shaking hands with Gardner.

Ike, Carney and Gardner walking up the deck and entering the cabin.

ROTA