

ACHESON SPEECH

— 51-88.

① [And therefore the United Nations has taken on a virility and life, which it would never have gained if its past had been easy. If it had merely gone forward with everyone's goodwill it would not have had this ~~breath~~ breathing, vigorous, powerful life which it is getting today.]