

104455-C
104453-C
104454-C

51/90

NEWS IN FLASHES

To Paris comes Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister, for the United Nations General Assembly. As he walks with Mr. Malik and Ambassador Pavlov, the world wonders whether he brings a new Russian peace plan. From America comes Dean Acheson to make a determined effort to end the cold war. America's ideas may not completely suit Russia, but if there is a will for peace, Britain looks to Mr. Eden's great experience to help find a way whereby nations can live together in peace and without fear.

Barton-on-Sea

Near Bournemouth the yacht "Lamerma" lies stranded, and a treasure hunt ends as her crew scramble to safety up the face of the cliff. Disabled in an 80-mile-an-hour gale, their ship was taken in tow but broke away in sight of safety. In the 260-ton yacht 14 men sailed in search of Captain Kidd's pirate treasure. To Captain Shepard their leader this looks like the end of their high hopes.

Caldon Low

To speed up output of limestone at the Derbyshire stone quarry, a cliff 150 feet high and nearly 400 feet long is to be blown up. 22 tons of explosive will make this Britain's biggest blast. The bore goes 70 feet into the cliff. Flags mark the danger area. Nearly 200,000 tons will be cut off. The last flag: and the siren sounds as they count off the seconds:-