

CIRCUS TRAINS FOR XMAS

At Ascot headquarters there's a trunk call for Bertram Mills' Circus to get cracking because Christmas will soon be here. There's an awful lot of elephant to clean, isn't there?

The famous Cumberlands will be there, of course. Their spectacular horse-back feats are one of the most popular turns at Olympia. Training is serious. Some of their stunts even make Coco's hair stand on end!

Coco will have plenty of competition from Pepe, one of the five chimps. Their turns seem to be mostly parties with plenty of grub. But I'll say this for them: you don't have to tell them to clean up their plates! This is Billy.

Pepe you already know.

Janette is a perfect little lady. Remember what I said about cleaning up their plates? Nice work, Bobo! For afters, there's nothing like a spot of Coco, says Pepe!
