

CHURCHILL'S BIRTHDAY

From all over the world good wishes pour in to No. 10; and here's Christopher Soames come to wish father-in-law many happy returns Presents, too. This one's well disguised. Maybe it's a bigger majority!

His years have been fruitful and in the birthday cake friends have put feathers in his hat to record each success with seventy-seven more for each year of his age. May the coming year bring him the last prize he seeks to win - a lasting settlement of peace.
