

WALES V. REST OF U.K.

Celebrating the 75th anniversary of their Football Association, Wales tackle the rest of the United Kingdom at Ninian Park, Cardiff; and here's Sherrtt clearing a Medley centre, to set the red-shirts going. The rest play in white. Centre-forward Ford comes up against Young of the Rangers - and referee Griffiths doesn't like it! Ford looks puzzled, but Wales get going again to get that quick goal. And with less than two minutes gone, here's danger for the Rest. Over comes the ball - and Allchurch has scored to put Wales one up!

The Welsh boys are bang on their toes now. Burgess of the Spurs sets them going again, before the Rest can settle down. Ford chases an Allchurch pass; side-feets past Cowan - and Wales are two up in six minutes!

Now the Rest fight back. Smith of Hibs. centres; Lefthouse is there. He heads out to Medley - here's the famous combination at work. There's a bit of a scramble but eventually Sherwood clears and at half-time it's Wales two, the Rest nil! With the second-half hardly warmed up, Wales are at it again. The ball rebounds but Allchurch slams it in to make it Wales three, the Rest nil.

Now here's the Rest trying again. They're just getting moving; nothing dangerous yet; but from thirty yards Fleming scores and it's Wales three, the Rest one; and the Rest are attacking again. Here comes Medley. And it's a goal! But Wales pull out a bit more and with no more scoring, win by three goals to two.
