STAR WEDDINGS

Outside the church of St. Stephen, Capri, they're waiting for a well-known resident's wedding - and here's Gracie, on the arm of her witness, while alongside walks husband-to-be Boris Alperovici. These exclusive pictures show Father Lembo performing the ceremony. A Bessarabian by birth, Boris first met Gracie when he went to repair her radio. For such a great star it's a simple, quiet wedding.

Now Our Gracie is Mrs. Alperovici. It's her third wedding and took little over five minutes. Now Gracie and her Boris start their life together, and all who have reaped so much pleasure from her art will wish Our Gracie all the happiness she so richly deserves.

At Caxton Hall, London, it's a different affair altogether as 19-year-old Elisabeth Taylor arrives for her wedding to Michael Wilding. Overboard went all the plans for a quiet wedding. Somehow the news leaked out.

And here they are, 39-year-old Michael Wilding and his bride.

Now there's no holding the huge crowd. Michael's rung the bell often with his British pictures and he's one of our most popular screen stars. His romance with Elisabeth Taylor had all fans really excited. Now the Wildings are off to the Continent for their honeymoon if they can force their way through this crowd of well-wishers.
