

MR. ATTLEE'S DAUGHTER WED

To Great Missenden Parish Church come three-hundred guests for the wedding of Mr. Attlee's youngest daughter. Among them Field Marshal Sir William Slim, Chief of the Imperial General Staff.

Now comes the bride's mother, Mrs. Attlee with daughter Felicity and then (escorted by her father) the bride, 21-year-old Alison Attlee.

The church is close to Mr. Attlee's home at Frestwood. Now the crowd's vigil ends as the newly-married couple appear. Mr. Richard Davis is a captain of the Honourable Artillery Company. One of the three bridesmaids is three-years-old Ann Shipton, Mr. Attlee's only grandchild. All will join the former premier and Mrs. Attlee in extending every good wish to the young couple.
