

5-8/2401
5-8/2401
52/23
5-8/2401

NEWS IN FLASHES

In Korea, men of the Welch Regiment (together with "Taffy" and Goat Major Williams) draw their looks in honour of St. David's Day ... that ought to keep the Reds away! They're men of the 1st battalion. After the issue, Major Hallows, second-in-command visits the companies and Private Johns (oldest soldier of B. Company) proposes the toast "And St. David."

The Zoo

London reports two new arrivals at the Penguin Pond - Kay and Fay. Officially they are 17-day-old South African Black-footed Penguins. Their father is Charlie, a dapper little man who can't stand kids - from the look of it! Wife Alice is too shy to come out.

Nearby, are King Penguins (giants compared with Charlie). Whilst he's busy taking home the washing one of the dignified gentlemen wonders what the cat's brought in!

Italy

On a farm near Treviso, Italy, there's never any shortage of workers. It means a big washing-day but many hands make light of it. Lisa looks after all the chickens and though the really young spend their time playing, Grandmother is never idle. Benedetto Cella is head of this remarkable family, Marina (25 days old) the youngest. And here they come to make their bow - three generations all living in the same house. Don't bother to count. The official score is sixty. They'd do all right with our new allowances, wouldn't they?