

A BIG FAMILY OF 60 MEMBERS

At the village of Gorge al Monticano, nr. Treviso, there is a big family composed of 60 members living all together in their farm-house; father, mother their sons, the sons of the sons, the wives and children all living in peace and friendship.

Each member of the Cella family has his own duty to perform. The men work in the farm, the women keep the house for all of them.

- Here are some male members of the family.
- Washing day for the girls.
- Lisa's duty is to look after the poultry.
- Grandmother is very busy knitting socks for everyone.
- Lots of children play in the fields.
- Grandfather, Benedette Cella, is the head of the family. The patriarch is 68-year-old, while Marina, the youngest member, is only 25-day-old.

When all the members of the Cella family rush outdoor they are really a sight.
