

NEWCASTLE-BLACKBURN REPLAY

Blackburn kick off at Elland Road, Leeds, and Newcastle (in stripes) defend the far goal. Rightaway Blackburn force a corner. Glover's kick comes high to goalie Simpson and with a long clearance he sets the Magpies going. Jackie Milburn gets the ball ...

Now watch this lovely pass to George Robledo.

Robledo cuts in. Kelly intercepts, but Robledo regains and shoots.

There's a 54-thousand crowd watching. Newcastle again, and here's another chance for Robledo, but it's over again - The Chilean hasn't struck form yet. Hallo! The crowd's surged onto the touch-line! And a girl's fainted in the crush. Now Quigley gets a shot for Blackburn. They were the last club to win the Cup two years running - which is what cupholders Newcastle hope to do.

Back come Newcastle as Milburn shoots. Elvey saves at full stretch. Robledo's there but Elvey beats him to the ball, and at half-time there's no score.

Resuming, Blackburn press strongly. That must have jarred Simpson! Blackburn have missed some chances too. Now it's Newcastle at the other end.

Elvey clears but back come Newcastle again. This is more like the Magpies. Milburn gets it. Jackie centres and Robledo has scored!

Blackburn fight back. This is their fourteenth semi-final: they've won the cup six times. But now time's running out. With only ten minutes to go, here's a promising chance to equalise.

A quick nod down to Quigley - he shoots! - and it's one all!

That's roused the Blackburn supporters! But here come Newcastle again. Mitchell centres, but Elvey robs Robledo again and skipper Ebersole clears.

Now we show you the dramatic penalty incident. Mitchell shoots. Now watch closely.

It's a penalty, of course. Mitchell takes the kick and Elvey's beaten with a beauty that puts Blackburn out and sends Newcastle to Wembley.
