

2-580401
52/33

POPE BLESSES EASTER CROWD

To a balcony of St. Peter's, Rome, comes Pope Pius XII and three-hundred-thousand kneel to receive his Easter blessing. They come from all parts of the world and mingle as one in a great devout multitude to receive the annual Papal eastertide message.

Now Pope Pius calls them to rise and hear his message.

Speaking in Italian, he called for a great surge of apostles, such as the early church knew, to spread christianity through which alone man could find peace and true happiness.

11/01

To a balcony of St. Peter's, Rome, comes His Holiness Pope Pius XII and three-hundred-thousand kneel to receive his Easter blessing. They come from all parts of the world and mingle as one in a great devout multitude to receive the annual Papal easter-tide message.

UP

SC. 8.

Now Pope Pius calls them to rise and hear his message.

UP

SC. 11.

Speaking in Italian, His Holiness called for a great surge of apostleship, such as the early church knew, to spread christianity through which alone men could find peace and true happiness.
