

"OPEN DAY" AT WAR MEMORIAL VILLAGE,

SINFIN AVENUE, ALLENTON, DERBY.

SATURDAY, 10TH MAY, 1952.

ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS.

2.50 p.m. Donors, Subscribers and other Guests are invited to assemble in Edinburgh Crescent.

3 p.m. His Worship the Mayor (Councillor Z. P. Grayson), Chairman of the Council of Management will welcome those present, and after a few words relative to the War Memorial Village, will invite the Donors to open officially and inspect the Houses and Bungalows.

(Stewards have been appointed to introduce the Donors to the Tenants).

4 p.m. Donors, Subscribers and other Guests are invited to re-assemble in Edinburgh Crescent for the planting of an Oak Tree by Lt.-Col. S. L. A. Carter, O.C. 18th Parachute Regiment.

(Lt.-Col. Carter has kindly provided a number of Trees for planting in the Village in memory of his Comrades who gave their lives in the War).

It is hoped that all present at this Ceremony will take the opportunity of looking round the Village and inspecting the layout.

It is regretted that no facilities are available for the supply of Teas.
