

TOURNAMENT TOY SOLDIERS

At Gosport, boys of the Royal Army Ordnance Corps School rehears the show they'll give at the Royal Tournament. It's always one of the most popular turns of the display. Now they're marching in stiff star formation. It's a fine spectacle but a severe test of their training. If they get out of line the whole effect is spoiled.

If that gun goes off there'll be trouble. Look out, chaps. It's loaded.

They didn't deserve that. Let's see if we can put things right again ... As you were!
