

FRENCH HONOUR EISENHOWER

To the Invalides, Paris, comes General Eisenhower to receive France's highest military honour as his work as NATO chief nears its end. He is accompanied by Prime Minister Pinay and Defence Minister Rene Pleven.

Later, President and Madame Auriol with Marshal Juin meet Mrs. Eisenhower, and the General proudly shows his medal. As the man who led the liberation of her people, France will always remember 'Le General Ike.'