

BAVARIA MOURNS CARDINAL

Bavaria mourns as the body of Cardinal Faulhaber, the brave and devout Archbishop of Munich who waged a ceaseless crusade against Fascism within Nazi Germany, is borne to its last resting place. A wise priest, the Cardinal quickly became a high dignitary in the church to which he had dedicated his life. Then as the Nazi menace spread, he began his fight for freedom. From his pulpit he preached against all that the Nazis were encouraging in Europe. The Gestapo tried to silence him, but he spoke on. While Europe was dark under the heel of Fascism, he brought a glimmer of light and hope. Now the light has gone out and the people mourn.
