

1048101

52/56

HUGE NEW YORK FIRE

Breaking out in a Brooklyn warehouse, New York's worst fire in thirty years spreads rapidly to business houses and residences.

Twenty-three fire-brigades went into action to save crowded tenements, whose inhabitants were evacuated for safety.

After two hours the fire was brought under control but not until nearly a million dollars damage was done and the warehouse watchman burned to death.