

INTERNATIONAL BOWLS CONTEST

On the Clontarf Golf Club green, bowling teams representing Scotland, Wales, Ireland and England, who are to meet in competition, line the green to receive the Tee-shk.

To mark the occasion, Mr. Walter Chapman, President of the Bowling League of Ireland, presents a Silver Jack to Mr. de Valera.

Now here's the England-Scotland match in progress. England put up a good fight but Scotland were the stronger side and deserved to win. A strong wind spoilt many good shots - but if there's much of this running about surely you need a good strong wind!

In the end Captain Adams of England had to congratulate Captain Penrose of Scotland on a good win by four shots.

Now it's Ireland versus Wales. Representatives of nine Bowling Associations were present, including Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa.

Wales led right up to the 21st and last end, but then Ireland came right back fighting to win an exciting match by six shots. To end with, let's feature a grand shot by popular skip McKenna.

2-178701

REL: Thursday, 24th July, 1952.

IRISH SPECIAL.

RE/03

On the Glentarf Golf Club green bBowling teams representing Scotland, Wales, Ireland and England who are to meet in competition line the green to receive the Tee'shk.

SC.4.

UP

To mark the occasion, Mr. Walter Chapman, President of the Bowling League of Ireland, presents a Silver Jack to Mr. de Valera.

UP

SC.7.

Now here's the England-Scotland match in progress. England put up a good fight but Scotland were the stronger side and deserved to win. A strong wind spoilt many good shots - but if there's much of this running about surely you need a good strong wind!

UP

SC.12.

In the end Captain Adams of England had to congratulate Captain Penrose of Scotland on a good win by 4 shots.

UP

SC.15.

Now it's Ireland versus Wales. Representatives of nine Bowling Associations were present, including Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa.

UP

SC.19.

Wales led right up to the 21st and last end but then Ireland came right back fighting to win an exciting match by six shots. To end with, let's feature a grand shot by popular skip McKenna.