NEWS IN FLASHES

Dignity and Impudence! The mighty "Queen Mary" and the 60-foot yacht "Tongin" the largest all-aluminium yacht ever built in Britain, and perhaps in the world. She'll turn in two lengths at top speed. This is the rosy saloon.

Built by Griston Astor on the two-way tension system which gives low running costs, she conforms to the highest Ministry of Transport standards, and good export orders are confidently expected. Yes, we can still build 'em - large or small!

Led by the pipes, the 1st battalion the Black Watch land in Korea. They were sped on their way by Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother, their Colonel-in-Chief, before sailing for Korea on the "Empire Grwell." It was the 21st time the famous battalion had sailed to battle in distant lands.

They'll join the 1st Commonwealth Division that has won such high praise in Korea.

At Stanley Park, 30,000 enjoy the fun when 300 stars come out to help some worthy causes. For instance, here's Ben Lyon, with Barbara and Richard lending moral aid, and the Babe of the family! It's to help local charities and the Variety Artists Fund. Doesn't Gordon Barker look serious! Maybe he's scared of Hal Miller! Master of Ceremonies at the third "News Chronicle" party is Jack Warner, who gives Scout Ken Daggan a big thrill whilst the chimp "minds his bills."
