

TAIL WAGGERS.

If you've got a tail to wag, you're in, because it's the "Everyman's Tail-wagger" Dog Show at Chessington. Better not talk about family trees and dogs, but pedigrees don't matter. The judges want a good wag. And if he starts up, somebody's going to feel the draught!

Here's the parade - all shapes and sizes! Mimi Percival's having trouble with Russ of Westeria. I knew I shouldn't have said trees! There goes Russ, looking for the thickly planted places! Anyway, to business! The contest is on. Hold on to your hats!

And here's the judges' verdict - though how the chap on the left managed I don't know! But this is the winner. What a wag!
